Special Desputch to THE HERALD.

Washington, Sept. 30,-The Federal Reserve Board in its monthly business eview to-night emphasized the fact that price cutting has taken hold of the wholesale trade to such an extent that it must shortly be felt in lower prices to consumers. In predicting a substantial reduction in retail prices board's review said that the revival of the wave of price cutting was due largely to a more exacting de-mand by the buying public as to price and quality. Flour production in District No. 5 (Minneapolls) during August was much leas than both a month ago and a year ago, the decrease between the two four week periods in July and August being 15 per cent.

The textile situation during the The newest type of United States Army

The textile situation during the month has been of unusual importance in all of the producing districts. An outstanding event has been a reduction of $31.5 per cent. by the Amoskeau halls of Manchester, N. H., while the action of the American Woolen Company in cutting its prices from 15 to 25 per cent, and resuming operations after per cent, and resuming operations after a two months' shutdown establishes a new level of basic values in an important branch of the woollen industry. Corresponding reductions in prices charged by important wholesalers and retailers in different parts of the country are tending to transfer the benefits of price reductions from manufacturors and wholesalers to consumers. In this connection the reductions made by the two largest mail order houses in the country are symptomatic of general conditions. Some lines of textile production are showing considerable depression by account of the fallow.

Calls Wilson Defender of a Lasting Peace

ORLEANS, France, Sept. 30—Speaking at the French Labor. Congress Leon Jouhaux, predent of the General Federation of Labor, said the French federation from the first had been in favor of the League of Nations. "It had indorsed the policy of President Wilson, defender of a lasting peace through liberty and the independence of nations," declared M. Jouhaux. "The principle of international control, which you will find also in the Soviet charter, is the sole remedy. Outside of this there is no internationalism possible." The issue before the Congress is the choice between economic and social revolution.
